

theoldbankcamelford

A local charity breathing new life into the disused NatWest Bank building in Camelford.

Equal opportunities & non-discrimination policy –

The Old Bank, Camelford carries out all its functions on the basis of equal opportunities.

The charity aims to ensure that the composition of its volunteers and workforce reflects that of the community it serves. All members of the public are treated fairly.

There is no discrimination on grounds of gender, age, ethnic origin, religion, political belief, sexuality, disability, marital status or social class. Due regard is given to relevant acts of parliament:

- Equal Pay Act, 1970
- Equality Act, 2006
- Human Rights Act, 1998
- Sex Discrimination Act, 1975
- Race Relations Act, 1976
- Race Relations (Amendment) Act, 2000
- EU Article 13, 1997
- Disability Discrimination Act, 1995
- Disability Discrimination Act (Amendment), 2005
- or any more recent additions to relevant law...

When a suitable candidate applies for a vacancy, every attempt is made to provide appropriate training and working conditions.

Regarding Room Hire: if there is a clash for bookings, priority will be given to long-term or earlier bookings, but every effort will be made to compromise, by asking people to be flexible.
